What's your favorite flower arrangement?

"Dahlias and chocolate sunflowers mixed with mint-colored hosta leaves, which really make the blossoms pop."

—Lilee Fell, floral designer

"Bunches of my award-winning roses—they have the most amazing fragrance."

—Kirk Basnight, restaurateur

"White calla lilies, purple lupines, and lavender phlox, which provide great variety in height and texture."

—Frederico Azevedo, landscape designer

"Heleniums. Fiery red, in all sorts of shapes."

—Ron Wendt, landscape and event designer

"I love clematis. They're romantic and viny."

—Anastasia Casale, florist

"A delicate bouquet of orange nasturtiums or verbena with white scabiosa."

—Charlotte Moss, interior designer
