Personal style philosophy: "Tailored. However casual or formal the outfit, I think it's important to always look tailored."

Beloved brands: "Christian Dior, because it's what I like to wear. Dior as a brand has this distinct feeling that flows throughout everything they make, and it aligns with how I usually feel. Berluti has the best shoes and leather goods; the texture is unparalleled, and their small, elegant details remind me of tattoos. And Tom Ford—for inspiring us all to be sexy."

East End shopping haunts: "Ryland Life Equipment and Tenet."

Best fashion advice: "Remember the dress code on the invitation." —My mother"

I'd never be caught wearing... "A jacket and bow tie with shorts—it's style nonsense to me."

Summer uniform: "Navy blue pants with a light blue or white shirt and a blue jacket. To me, that outfit means summer—blue is the ocean, and white is the sand."

Personal style philosophy: "Classic foundation, but with slight subtle upgrades."

Beloved brands: "Tom Ford, Eleventy, and Sunspel. All are true to form, proper yet still a bit edgy and appropriate."

East End shopping haunts: "Orlebar Brown and Ralph Lauren."

Best fashion advice: "Never dress down. Always one step up. It respects who you're going to meet or do something with."—My father"

I'd never be caught wearing... "Flip-flops or muscle T-shirts, and absolutely never on a plane or in public."

Summer uniform: "Light, unconstructed linen jackets, James Perse T-shirts, and Ami sneakers."
